Railroads Plan Action Against United States Treasurer To Get Funds.

Congress May Also be Asked To Act To Afford Relief

Washington, November 29.—Court action to compel the Treasury Department to make payments to the railroads under the guaranty provision of the transportation act is under consideration by the carriers.

Comptroller Warwick of the Treasury had ruled the Treasury cannot make advances to the railroads on account of the six months guarantees unless the roads filed their application for such advances prior to September 1st, the date on which the guarantee expired. It is to this ruling the roads object.

They have contended it was not possible for them to complete their figures as to the amounts due them by the government at that time.

Many millions of dollars of funds due to the carriers are held up and officials of the railroads declare the money is urgently needed for equipment and betterments necessary to improve the service.

They have stated an effort would be made to have Congress at the forthcoming session amend the transportation act so that the money could be paid over.

Creamer, asking $1200 damages, and the second by Alfred H. Creamer, asking $1,000 damages. In each suit Robert Rowland and John Rowland, farmers residing southeast of this city, are defendants.

Auto Operating Costs Cut

By This New and Novel Method

There's got to be something done for the automobile owner; it's time he received a square deal; there should be an end put to slipshod, mysterious methods of doing business with him. In short, that is the conclusion we have reached in our first hand analysis of the case, and we are going to unfold our plan for the remedy.

This may seem far fetched to some; it may startle others; it will be received with antagonism by quite a few—but say, all we want any car owner to do is to take his pencil and paper and sit right down and figure his saving under this plan in a year's time. That's all you need do to make its favorable points clear; certainly you will do that.

The thing has been thought out—not jumped at. It is a strictly business proposition for business people. IT IS THE FIRST AND ONLY MONEY-SAVING PLAN EVER OFFERED TO FAYETTE COUNTY CAR OWNERS.

How many times the past year did you feel that you were overcharged; it can't happen under this plan. How many times did you conclude you had paid too much for some repair; not possible under our method. How often have you wished you didn't own a car and thought you would be glad if you never saw another, because of the "fearful" service; you'll never complain after trying this method.

Our agreement pledges us to service that satisfies; it requires us to employ only skilled mechanics; we are bound by agreement to NOT OVER-CHARGE YOU, BECAUSE OUR AGREEMENT MAKES IT COMPULSORY TO SHOW YOU THE COST AND TO CHARGE YOU AT COST.

AND THIS METHOD DOES NOT STOP WITH PLEASURE CARS—IT INCLUDES TRUCKS AND TRACTORS. Mr. Farmer, don't you think you can afford to save money on your tractor upkeep and operating expense?

Buy all Your Supplies at Cost

THAT MEANS JUST EXACTLY WHAT IT SAYS WITHOUT ANY TRIMMINGS OR QUALIFICATIONS. IT SIMPLY MEANS THAT YOU MAY PURCHASE THE SUPPLIES AND ACCESSORIES NECESSARY FOR THE OPERATION OF YOUR CAR, TRUCK OR TRACTOR AT ACTUAL MANUFACTURER'S, JOBBER'S OR WHOLESALE'S COST PLUS WHATEVER EXPENSE IS ADDED FOR GETTING IT TO YOU. IF YOU HAD BOUGHT ALL THESE THINGS AT COST LAST YEAR, WHAT WOULD YOU HAVE SAVED ON TIRES; ON TUBES; ON OILS, GREASES AND GAS; ON ACCESSORIES AND ON REPAIR PARTS?

We tell you it's a simple matter of mathematics, and you don't have to be a scholar to figure it out, either. We are trying to make every car owner, tractor owner, and truck owner a partner instead of a victim. It's a new-day service and it's for all of you.

The matter is up to you owners entirely. We have told you what you get from us and what it will save you; now we're going to tell you how to get it and what we get from you.

To get the benefits of this plan, of course you would agree to buy them of us; there would be no incentive to buy them elsewhere, since we sell them at cost. But that's the owner's business where he buys.

The compensation, fee, membership charge or whatever you wish to call it, that we get out of the deal is based on the following yearly charge:

Yearly cost for cars taking a 30x3½ inch tire is $20.00. All cars taking tires of greater size than 30x3½ inches the yearly charge is $25.00.

CAN YOU IMAGINE THAT? If you own a Chevrolet or a Ford figure your saving on a set of tires by buying them under this plan. Why, man alive, how can you turn a proposition like this down?

Get real busy right now, and see one of our agreements — read it and wonder afterwards.

LINEUP IN LAST GAME OF SEASON WAS ALMOST NEW

Although Washington High School had expected to defeat Wilmington High here Thanksgiving day it was only the fans that really looked for the high score of 57 to 0. The players themselves realized the condition of their team because of a patched-up lineup.

Injuries received in the memorable game at Circleville would not permit Carroll Flee to play his position at end, but his "little" brother, Russell, stepped into his shoes and the position was filled in regulation Flee style.

Again Sam Nelson went to the rescue at right end, Hitchcock still being out of the game because of injuries received at Wilmington, and the way he played made football history in the Thanksgiving game.

Right guard Stewart was called from the lineup in the morning before the game because of the death of a relative. Forrest Smith drew the assignment and his opponent on the line was Left Guard Eagan of Wilmington who weighs 210 pounds. Smith weighed about 135. The manner in which Smith held his section of the line was evident when Eagan was taken from the field because of injuries in the third quarter.

One of the finds of the season has been Warren Baker, 175 pound center and a player who in his first year has missed but very few minutes. His passing is as nearly perfect as found in high school football and on few occasions have gains been made through his part of the defense.

Let Us All Resolve

On the fourth of next March we are going to inaugurate a new president, a new regime out and out is to get on the job at the national capital and for two years the legislative branch cannot be changed and the executive branches are certain to remain in control of affairs for four years beyond any possibility of change.

It is well, therefore, for the American people to resolve right now that they are going to quit complaining about everything that is done and thousands of things that are not done. We should all firmly determine to assist the new administration in every way rather than endeavor to make it a failure. The incoming administration is certain to have enough trouble, without any assistance from the knockers who have been so busy during the past two years.

Many people fail to realize it, but we are becoming a nation of chronic fault-finders and scolds. We have become so clamorous in our demands, so unreasonable in our expectations, so impatient for realization of our own individual wants, and so abusive of our public servants that it is a wonder that responsible, self-respecting men will consent to undertake public service.

It is time to call a halt on ourselves, to check our anger and resentment and to bridle our unruly tongues.

We should resolve to follow a different course after March fourth for our own good as well as in decency to those who try to serve us faithfully.

The Outlook In England

Americans cannot, notwithstanding their great confidence, justified by centuries of achievement, in the Anglo-Saxon people, read of the disturbances now occurring all over England, without a feeling of fear for the ultimate outcome.

Particularly disquieting are the late telegraphic reports that London and other large cities and towns in England are awaiting outbreaks among the laboring classes who have been agitated to the point of rebellion by Sinn Fein and Bolshevik leaders.

On Sunday night twelve cotton warehouses and several lumber yards in Liverpool alone were destroyed by incendiary fires. Fire fighters were prevented from doing proper work by well organized and smoothly working bands of men who ruined the apparatus.

It is disturbing to face the all too evident fact that the governmental structure of England and the whole British Empire is menaced as it never has been before in history.

The future seems to be without any encouraging sign for a return to sanity among the great people to whom the world looks for leadership.

Propaganda Against Japan

We have no desire to see the rights and privileges of the Japanese in this country enlarged and indeed are by no means antagonistic to the enactment of legislation, national or state, which will measurably abridge the rights they now hold, but there seems to be a very evident attempt to stir up hatred of the Japanese which no good American can endorse. Unless that tendency is checked we are being driven toward the precipice of war with Japan.

There is no reason why our disagreements with Japan cannot be adjusted satisfactorily to both nations without engendering a hatred in the public mind. It can be done better by recognizing the real facts. The Japanese are not an ignorant, inferior race. They have made, individually and as a nation, marvelous progress. They are intelligent, industrious and thrifty. They are patriotic and prosperous. Why not concede those facts?

It is equally true that the Japanese way is not the American way. The two races—the white and the yellow—will not amalgamate. The people cannot live together in peace under the same government and there is no reason why we cannot, as nations, realize those facts and reform our treaty provisions accordingly. The Japanese can go their way and we can continue our own without war, without serious clash, if the promoters of villainous propaganda will stay out of it.

POETRY FOR TODAY

THE HILLS OF NIGHTTIME

Across the hills of nighttime,
I hear the children call,
I hear their feet a-splashing,
Below the water-fall,
And find my arms a-reaching
To clasp and love them all,
All of the little children,
Forever dear to me,
The little children playing,
Beside the summer sea,
The children of the uplands,
With tousled locks blown free,
Across the hills of nighttime,
When I am all alone,
I see them standing, waving,
With tousled locks wind-blown,
All of the little children,
Whom I have ever known.

MARK SULLIVAN SAYS G. O. P. GOSSIPS MENTION EIGHT MEN FOR PREMIER CABINET POST

Besides Root, Knox and David Jayne Hill the List Includes
Senators Lodge and Fall, ex-Senator Sutherland of Utah,
And George Wharton Pepper of Philadelphia.

Root Under Fire of Those Who Want No Secretary of State
Sympathetic to The League—Hill and Knox Acceptable To Opponents of Root in Harding's Cabinet.

BY MARK SULLIVAN
(Copyright 1920)

Washington, November 29. — Discussion of cabinet possibilities is entered upon with some distaste. The cabinet is a matter so completely within Mr. Harding's control and discretion that nothing authoritative can possibly be said without a knowledge of his mind, and a knowledge of his mind is exactly what nobody is authorized to convey.

It is true, of course, that cabinet appointments, like all others, are subject to at least perfunctory confirmation by the senate. To that extent it is legitimate for senators to discuss the possibilities and for newspaper men to report what senators say on the subject. It is also true that Republican leaders have the interest in cabinet appointments which goes with their responsibilities as party leaders, but this, also, is an extremely tenuous excuse for attaching great weight to what party leaders say and feel.

Nevertheless, the fact is that Republican senators and Republican party leaders to discuss cabinet possibilities more than almost anything else. To a good deal of this discussion I have listened, and what is here set down is confined exclusively to what is said by these senators and leaders. Nothing that is known to be or guessed to be in Senator Harding's mind is here included. Subject to these limitations, let us consider the office of Secretary of State.

The Eight Who are Mentioned
A fairly complete list of the men who are mentioned in this connection would include the following: Elihu Root, Senator Knox, David Jayne Hill, Charles E. Hughes, ex-Senator George Sutherland of Utah; George Wharton Pepper of Philadelphia. Senator Lodge and Senator Fall.

Of this group, the first three, Messrs. Root, Knox and Hill, are in a class apart. Always bearing in mind that nobody knows what may be the governing considerations in Senator Harding's mind, these three are undoubtedly to the front in the discussions of party leaders and senators.

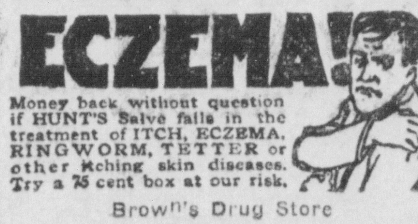

Of these three, Senator Root is considered by everybody, including those who are working against him, to have the largest equipment of experience. It is true that Senator Knox matches him in the fact that he, like Mr. Root, has already filled a term as secretary of state. But apart from the fact that both men have already held the office, it still remains true that Mr. Root, has had very much the greater experience in international affairs.

Especially has Mr. Root had experience in what is, or ought to be, the chief duty of the next secretary of state—the business of bringing about international relations looking toward the maintenance of peace and the reduction of armaments. In this field of the arbitration and adjudication of international disputes Mr. Root has been for more than twenty years the foremost figure in the United States and probably in the world. As everybody knows, the institution for preserving peace which Mr. Root has long worked to bring about differs markedly from the League of Nations in form, although identical with it in purpose.

"Irreconcilables" Opposed to Root
The objections put forward by those who are avowedly doing what they can to prevent the choice of Mr. Root are two. One, when expressed in private conversation, is entirely frank. It comes from the more determined opponents of the League of Nations from the extreme "irreconcilables." They say that Mr. Root has recently been too close to the league of Nations; that he has, in fact, within the last six months acted as an agent of the league of Nations and that this fact would disqualify him as Secretary of State from acting as strongly as these "irreconcilables" want the United States to act in those dealings with the League of Nations that the immediate future holds out. They don't want a secretary of state who is sympathetic to the League or to the purposes of the League; they want a secretary of state, to put it boldly, who will do what he can to kill the League.

Factors Harding Will Consider
There is not room here to speak at any length of the other suggestions. Also, let it be repeated and emphasized that what is said here is merely the net, so to speak, of the gossip of Republican senators and leaders, and has no relation to what may be in Mr. Harding's mind.

Mr. Harding necessarily will take into account consideration of the personal relation to him, considerations of temperamental capacity for harmonious teamwork on the part of individual cabinet members and other considerations that do not figure in the less responsible discussions of the party leaders.

THREE DAYS IN BED FROM HEADACHE COMMON THING FOR ALLIANCE MAN

Had very sluggish liver, was constipated and catarrh was so bad was growing deaf.

Declares Drego has given great relief and never has a headache any more.

"It was a common happening for me to lay in bed three days at a time from headaches, unable to find relief," stated Mr. F. B. Hyatt of Parkside Ave., Alliance, Ohio.

"My liver was very sluggish so that dizzy spells hit me and I'd have to sit down right there, spots danced before my eyes, I had a vile taste in my mouth and my breath was foul. My bowels were bound up and I was so nervous I never got a good, sound sleep.

"Catarrh annoyed me daily, which kept me clearing my throat continually and hawking and spitting. I had roaring noises in my head and I was slowly growing deaf. This worried me very much.

"Reading so often in the papers about the great success of Drego in such cases as my own, I began taking this great root and herb medicine and it has proven a grand blessing to me. "My liver has been worked off fine bowels are regular every day. I haven't had a single headache since taking the first bottle of Drego, and my hearing is improved very much. Drego is truly the great remedy everyone declares it to be and I gladly add my words of praise for it."

All good druggists now sell Drego and it is being especially introduced in Washington C. H. by Frank Christopher.—Advt.

COMBINE WIRELESS AND WIRE TELEPHONE

The first commercial wireless and wire telephone conversation in the world was held between the office of William Wrigley Jr. in Chicago and J. H. Patrick, president of the Catalina Island company several weeks ago. Mr. Wrigley and several friends, with Sidney Hogerton, division plant superintendent of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company; John L. Spellman, publicity manager of the Chicago Telephone Company, and Charles H. Gabriel of the Chicago Tribune, each conversed with Mr. Patrick and his secretary. Through thirty miles of ocean spanning wireless and 3,000 miles of telephone wire, Mr. Gabriel asked Mr. Patrick what he thought of the telephone service. Mr. Patrick replied that it is the best in the world.—Bell Telephone News.

RANDOM NOTES

SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

Mrs. Morgan Baker brought together for a delightfully informal "Bridge" Saturday afternoon six tables of players in compliment to her sister, Mrs. Clarence Frazer, of Xenia. The guests were chiefly confined to the friends of the charming honor guest's earlier residence in this city and the renewal of mutual friendships was much enjoyed in connection with a spirited game.

Mrs. R. C. Peddicord made high score and was presented with a box of bon bons and Miss Ella Grant, of Mt. Vernon, received the consolation favor.

Chrysanthemums were used in decoration and a delicious refectory served.

The regular business meeting of the Ladies Aid Society of the Maple Grove Church was held at the home of Mrs. Almada White, on November twenty-fourth, with ten members responding to roll call.

A pleasurable social hour with refreshments followed.

The next meeting will be held at the church Wednesday, December 29.

"Mr. and Mrs. Leo Katz, 1424 Madison avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter Rosalin to Mr. Harry Edward Cohn of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Katz will be at home Sunday evening, December 5, from 7 until 10, honoring their daughter and her fiancé."—Sunday's issue of the Columbus Dispatch.

The above announcement is interesting to the many friends of the pretty bride-elect in this city, her former home, as well as friends and acquaintances of the family.

Delicious baked beans and homemade brown bread will be included in this week's menu of the Y. W. C. A. Tuesday noon lunches of the business women.

Mrs. Forest Mabre the cateress has already gained a reputation for her baked beans, and the announcement of Tuesday's menu is sure to be a drawing card.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hardway delightfully celebrated their twentieth wedding anniversary Saturday evening at their home on the Creek Road, the son Emmitt receiving with his parents.

The home was attractively decorated with scarlet carnation for the occasion. The guests numbering fifty, were confined to members of the Golden Rule Class of the Sugar Grove church and their husbands. Mrs. Hardway is a member of the class.

The social committee had planned the entertainment and there were three lively contests with music throughout the evening, old fashioned songs especially popular.

Mr. and Mrs. Hardway were presented with beautiful china, symbolic of the twentieth anniversary.

The hostess' mother, Mrs. Mary Archart, and mother-in-law, Mrs. William Hardway assisted in the hospitalities, and in serving a dainty collation.

"The Sons of Hoyle Post" and "The Daughters of Mrs. Hoyle" have participated in a number of quite unusual and highly enjoyed affairs, but none more brilliantly successful than the progressive "500" party entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Hutton (nee Jane Paul) at their attractive home in Frankfort Saturday night.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Hutton, the latter one of the "Daughters," filled the role of host and hostess with delightful cordiality and the game progressed merrily until brought to a close by the serving of an elaborate two course luncheon.

Miss Georgiabel Hays was the prize winner.

Miss Lora Ellen Tharp, of Columbus assisted in the hospitalities.

The girls of the Chi Delta Chi Club were charming hostesses, Saturday evening, at a progressive dinner of four courses with covers laid for eighteen, the hostesses and their escorts.

Miss Eleanor Jones and Miss Elizabeth McDonald served the first course of fruit cocktail at the Jones' home, a beautiful basket of yellow pom-pom chrysanthemums forming attractive decoration for the table.

The appetizing meat course was served at the home of Miss Dorothy Dick on Van Deman Avenue, with Miss Helen Durant and Miss Marjorie Klever sharing in the honor of hostesses. The guests were seated at the dining room table, and at smaller tables which had for their decoration yellow chrysanthemums.

As at the home of Miss Dick, Misses Mary Hanna and Florence Bliss had the guests seated at small tables in both the dining and living rooms. Small crystal baskets of the pom-pom chrysanthemums adorned the tables.

The Misses Bliss served delicious salad and wafers.

The entire party motored to the spacious Hagler home for the desert course, Miss Mary Hagler and Miss Jessie Sunkle entertaining. Dancing to victrola music rounded out the evening which was one of the jolliest of this club's entertainments.

The favored guests included: Willis H. Willis, Thomas Rogers, Jesse Hagler, Milton Hegler, Oliver Miller, Willard Perrill, David Craig, Lawrence Hollinger of Massillon, O., and Edgar Runkle, of Shelbyville, Ill.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Leach was thrown open to friends of the Cunningham neighborhood Friday evening. As were the services of her sister, Mrs. Adeline Stuckey, a short time ago, the funeral of Mrs. Ellen Stokesbury, in Grace Methodist Church Saturday afternoon, were in keeping with the simple Christian life she had led, and although brief, beautifully impressive.

DEATH MESSAGE ARRIVES HERE FROM FLORIDA

A telegram from Florida conveying word of the death of Dr. Grant Marchant, of Milledgeville, and the announcement that the family was leaving Jacksonville, Fla., with the body Sunday night, came as an overwhelming shock to the communities of both this city and Milledgeville. Undertaker McCoy received the wire Monday morning and went to Cincinnati on the afternoon train to be there whenever the family arrived.

Last week a telegram was received by Mr. R. W. Marchant, a brother, saying that Dr. Marchant was seriously ill at New Smyrna, on the east coast.

The Marchant winter home, where Dr. and Mrs. Marchant joined the only child, Miss Iris, about a month ago, is at Palmetto, and while no definite information has been received, it is inferred that the family were on a motoring trip when Dr. Marchant was taken ill. Sympathy goes out deeply to the wife and daughter, so far from home and so greatly bereaved.

For a number of years Dr. Marchant had been going down in health and had spent the winters in Florida, both for the change of climate and the rest, which his large clientele made it impossible to secure in his Fayette county home.

He was an extremely popular physician, his medical skill enforced by a kindly nature which carried comfort and cheer to the sick room and gained affection to an unusual degree.

Dr. Marchant was on the verge of his fifty-fifth birthday; the son of the late John Marchant, one of the wealthiest pioneers of the county and an extensive landowner in the Milledgeville and Plymouth vicinities. He is survived by three brothers, R. W. Marchant, residing at the old home place at Center Church; Trustin J., of Seaview, Wash.; Sherman, of Mansfield; and four sisters, Mrs. John Allen, of near Parrotts; Mrs. Chas. Ford, of Milledgeville; Mrs. Ida Paine, Windham, Ohio; Mrs. Chas. Shonk, of Chicago.

Dr. Marchant practiced at Milledgeville and in this city for more than thirty years and also for short periods in Chicago, Toledo, Dayton and Florida, and attained marked recognition as a successful physician. He was an active member of the Fayette County Medical Association and held the office of president for some time. To many phases of community life he brought deep interest and was a staunch Republican and active in party politics for a number of years.

Personally a genial and likable man, Dr. Marchant's death is followed by wide spread regret and his loss to his own community will be most keenly felt.

Funeral announcements will be made later.

CHILD TAKEN HOME AFTER AMPUTATION

After undergoing an operation seldom experienced by a child of his age and being on the way to recovery little Russel Lockard, the 10 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Lockard, of New Holland, was removed from the Fayette Hospital to his home Monday afternoon.

Four fingers and a part of the thumb of the child's left hand were removed in an operation last week because of burns which refused to heal. A cloth saturated with turpentine around the hand caught fire and caused the injury.

The shock of the operation was well withstood by the child and rapid recovery is anticipated.

COUNTERFEITERS ARE UNEARTHED AT CINCINNATI

Cincinnati, November 29.—Following information given by a woman, three policemen entered a room here Sunday and arrested two men who were drying the ink on more than $5000 worth of $10 bank notes which had been printed from copper plates.

The counterfeiting outfit was seized, and police say it is one of the most complete which has ever been found in Cincinnati. The prisoners were registered as Martin Hamman, 47, Cincinnati, and Charles Schwibbe, 25, years old, Vincennes, Ind.

Nine of the bank notes had been completed and the paper was still wet when the officers enter the room. The men had evidently made many experiments, for several $10 notes, which Hamman said were "too thick" were scattered on the table. The paper used was of the best grade and an artificial toughness was added with a glue. Many books on photographic methods, engraving, chemicals and coloring were found in the room.

Police say Hamman was sentenced to serve five years in the federal prison at Leavenworth after he had been convicted of counterfeiting in Oklahoma. He was recently released. Schwibbe told the police that he served nine months in prison for robbing a safe in an Indiana town.

Hobart is the author of the play, while B. C. Hilliam has provided music and lyrics. Not a musical comedy, "Buddies" nevertheless boasts of a number of song hits distinctly relevant to the plot and adding to the general lustre of the entertainment. There are three particularly bright stars heading the cast, these being Charles King, Virginia O'Brien and Larry Wheat, assisted by George Ramain, Lill Rhodes, Juliette Grenier, Amy Vaness and many others. "Buddies" is not a war play in any sense, but concerns several Americans of the late war in their after-war experiences in sunny France. Matinee Saturday.

They said, they were having a party in Peirce's apartment when Smith and Jack entered, held up Peirce and when he showed resistance hit him over the head with a pipe wrench.

His last day in the canal zone was spent quietly resting. During a visit to the naval air station at Coco Solo, Mrs. Harding accepted an invitation to make a flight in a seaplane, spending fifteen minutes over Limon Bay.

MEXICAN OUTLOOK
IS VERY HOPEFULMethodist Bishop, Wilbur P.
Thirkield, Talks on MexicoOnce Presided Over Ohio Conference in This City.

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Bishop Wilbur P. Thirkield, first resident Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Mexico, who recently returned from that country, declares that "Mexico, first in neighborhood, must be made first in brotherhood" to the people of the United States. The Bishop traveled extensively through Mexico during the last few months.

"Never at any time during the past 10 years," he said, "have conditions been so stable or the outlook for peace and progress been so hopeful. The country is wholeheartedly behind the new President, General Obregon, to be inaugurated in December and the Provisional President de la Huerta has a strong hold on all classes."

"The aspect of peace in Mexico today is in striking contrast to the bristling guns and disturbances evinced in my visit of two years ago. Then every train was guarded by soldiers. During the last two months I have traveled extensively through six states of Mexico and did not find a soldier on guard on any train."

"There is no organized opposition to the present government and no man is in sight, around whom any opposition can center. Just as noticeable and gratifying is the friendly feeling toward the United States."

"This feeling prevails on both sides of border, and was manifested in a striking manner in the recent visit of President-elect Obregon to El Paso."

"The border states have changed entirely their attitude toward intervention. The governors and the press are solid for peaceful co-operation with Mexico. For the first time in 10 years a train has crossed the International Bridge. Also for the first time in 10 years officers of the Mexican and United States army are exchanging courtesies across the border."

"I had an interview for an hour with President-elect Obregon," he said, "and found him in most cordial sympathy with the program for Methodist work which I discussed with him. General Obregon is modest, mild mannered and entirely frank. He wears no uniform, as if to emphasize the civil character of the government for which he stands."

Bishop Thirkield a few years ago presided over the Ohio M. E. Conference in this city, and was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Craig while here.

IS ALMOST TOO GOOD TO BE TRUE

Says Tanlac Completely Restored Her Health And She Weighs More Than Ever Before In Her Life.

"When my neighbors ask me what I am eating to make me pick-up so fast I tell them just anything I want, for since I began taking Tanlac everything agrees with me perfectly," said Mrs. Clark Johnson, Chesapeake, Ohio. "For a year or more I had suffered from stomach trouble. After every meal I would bloat up with gas, have darting pains in my stomach and chest and my heart palpitated dreadfully. I often had such severe headaches I just had to go to bed. I was almost a complete nervous wreck and it was impossible for me to get a good night's sleep. I had rheumatism so bad in my left arm that I couldn't raise my hand to my head. I had a severe attack of the 'flu' and when finally I got out of bed I was so weak I could hardly stand up, and for six weeks was unable to do any of my housework at all. 'Finally I started taking Tanlac and my improvement has been so great it is almost unbelievable. I have entirely regained my health, my nerves are in fine shape. I never have a headache or neuralgia and the rheumatism has completely left me. I have not only regained my lost weight but weigh five pounds more than I ever did in my life, and am so much stronger I can do my housework with the greatest ease. I am a well woman today.'"

Tanlac is sold in Washington by C. S. Haver, in Lowell by Mason's Drug Store, in Jeffersonville by J. B. Davis, in Oeta by J. W. Murphy and in Milledgeville, E. L. Ford Sons, Lee Orman Selden.—Advt.

ASK CHAUTAUQUA FOR THE FARMER

Representing the International Harvester Company, O. A. Ryan and M. C. Welsheimer, were in this city Wednesday meeting a group of farmers at the Fayette Farm Bureau offices. The men also conferred with W. W. Wilson & Son, the local International dealers.

Messrs. Ryan and Welsheimer were presenting a plan for a Farmers' Chautauqua in order to bring into closer relations the rural and city dwellers. They were from the extension department, whose duty is to assist in solving problems relative to farm life.

The plan appeared feasible to the group of men with whom the representatives conferred but no action was taken in the matter.

OBITUARY

Joseph Elmer Fultz was born in Bourneville, Ohio, Ross County, July 12, 1872 and departed this life November 19, 1920, aged 48 years, 4 months, and 7 days. He was the son of Henry and Elizabeth Fultz, and one of eleven children. Nine of whom are still living. As a child he attended the Fayette County Schools. About 28 years ago he moved, with his parents, to Washington.

When old enough to work he became employed here in the chair factory, and it was while working there, just about 17 years ago last Spring that he became stricken with rheumatism. For a few years he walked on crutches and sat in a wheel chair and then about 8 years ago he became helpless. From that time on, in spite of all medical care he became steadily worse, until now right at the noonday of his life, God called him.

Our God is an all wise and loving Father and watches over and cares for his children with a greatness too deep for us to fathom. Proof of this is shown by the fact that all through Joe's illness, he was left a dear old mother, whom God gave strength to care for her invalid son. And then when her hair all shown silver and her brow became wrinkled and furrowed with care and her eyes became dimmed and blurred, and her footsteps slowed by the touch of time, God called to Joe, and asking him to lay down his earthly burdens, he broke all shackles and fetters that had so long held him to his lonely bed of pain, and led him to that beautiful home, where he will never know pain, nor sorrow, nor suffering, nor loneliness, but where all is joy and gladness.

Both eyes were blind and still he saw the full sunshine of God's love, and though both hands were still and useless, he walked hand in hand with his Maker each day.

Each day his mother read a portion from the Bible to him, together they studied it and talked about it. He especially liked the Book of Job, and time after time would ask to have it read and explained to him. His favorite song was "Nearer My God to Thee," and his mother says that many times she heard him sing: "Yet in my dreams, I'd be, Nearer my God to Thee."

He leaves to mourn his departure a mother, two brothers and 7 sisters and friends.

Must Jesus bear the cross alone, And all the world go free? No there's a cross for every one And there's a cross for me.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their sympathy during our late bereavement. And for the many beautiful floral offerings. And we wish especially to thank Rev. Alexander and the singers for their consoling words and songs. Also Underaker Klever for the very efficient services rendered.
